

'Lost Lives Remembered'

Penarth Festival meets the 'Friends'

3.30 – 5 pm Saturday 4th July

Visitors to the Summer Festival are invited to step up the hill to St. Augustine's. There they can VIEW the Roll of Honour, TALK to local researchers about Penarth men who died in WW1, TOUCH memorabilia from the Firing Line Museum, and READ Letters of Thanks to Stanwell School Old Boys serving in World War 1, from current Stanwell pupils. Free event – open to all.

We are grateful to the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) for funding this event

Classical Guitar Recital

We believe this may be a first for St Augustine's! Jonathan Parkin is a professional musician who trained at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama. He has won many competitions and his programme, which will include pieces by Bach, Tansman, Ponce and Roussel, promises to be memorable.

Traditional Jazz Concert

Penarth Marina Residents are celebrating the 150th anniversary of the building of Penarth Docks. The Windsor Clives built the docks in 1865 and in 1866 St Augustine's Church was built thanks to the generosity of Lady Windsor. The church and the docks are therefore closely intertwined through the Windsor Clive family. The Jazz concert is one of several events to mark the 150th Anniversary of the Opening of the Docks. Friends of St Augustine's Newsletter 5

May 2015

After all the hectic activity surrounding the events to commemorate the outbreak of WW1 last year, it has been good to have a rather quieter few months. However, there have been two excellent events since the last newsletter in November. In December Lt Col Caroline Whittaker spoke on life in a Field Hospital in Afghanistan – what courage and commitment our armed forces have.

Alan Thorne

Then in March we were enthralled yet again by Alan Thorne who took us on a whistle stop tour of the history of religion and churches in Penarth over the centuries.

The daffodils really did dance in the breeze alongside the path up to the church this Spring. Many thanks to Andy Davison for the planting and to Ann Lush for the bulbs.
